

SELLING a car WITH OUTSTANDING Finance

HOW DO I SELL A FINANCED CAR?

- If you intend to sell an automobile that is still financed, you must get in touch with the lender and settle the outstanding finance. You can transfer the title to the keeper as soon as the loan is paid off.
- When the title is transferred to the keeper, they must pay taxes, title, and registration costs. Before transferring the title, you might additionally need to present documentation from the lender confirming that the loan is paid off.

HOW DO I SELL A CAR WITH OUTSTANDING FINANCE?

- Selling a car with outstanding finance can be a challenging procedure. Before they can legally sell the car, the seller will typically need to get in touch with the lender (finance agency) and make arrangements for the loan's repayment.
- If the seller is unable to pay the remaining sum, the lender may in extreme circumstances even reclaim the car.

Try some other information here

HOW TO CHECK IF A CAR IS ON FINANCE

visit: cardotcheck.co.uk